

MADISON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Madison County Historical Society is a not-for-profit education corporation chartered by the New York State Board of Regents in 1900. The Society's history collections are located at Cottage Lawn, a residence designed by A.J. Davis in 1849, located at 435 Main Street, Oneida, New York. Membership is open to the public.

- Junior (Under 18) $5
- Adult $20
- Supporting $75
- Contributor $250
- Senior (60 and over) $15
- Family (Up to 4) $30
- Patron $125
- Corporate $300

Renewal New Member

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

* ALL DONATIONS ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE ****

Please enclose this form and make your check payable to The Madison County Historical Society, 435 Main Street, Oneida, NY 13421.

Madison County Historical Society Volunteer Application

Interested in volunteering at MCHS? What would you like to help out with? Choose from the partial list below to match your talents with our areas of opportunity:

- Tour Guide
- Offsite Museum Educator
- Research Request Assistant
- Research Library Filing
- Research Library Scrap booking
- Collections Care
- Exhibit Development
- Office Support
- Newsletter writing and editing
- Building and Grounds Main
- Hop Fest
- Craft Days
- Christmas Open House
- Other Events _____

Please indicate the days you are available:

- Monday
- Tuesday
- Wednesday
- Thursday
- Friday

Please complete the form and enclose it in with your membership renewal. Thank You.

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____